Fraser Presbytery, The United Church of Canada

People within Fraser Presbytery were well represented among the 180 delegates to the Behold! event. Below are pictured some of your people.....

“Behold!” began in fall 2008 with The United Church of Canada's first conference on intercultural ministries. Participants come from many cultural communities and language groups to worship together and experience what "intercultural" might mean for the church. “Behold!” is a transformative experience and a time of deep encounter!

Pyoung Shik Shin of Northwood United and Marion Carr of Crossroads United.

Sarah Tsai from Amazing Grace Taiwanese United, Surrey, addresses the gathering in worship.

Jane Harding – National Staff and member of Cloverdale United

Sarah Tsai and Jennifer Purych (Minister of children and families, Crossroads United) share over lunch.

Yoko Kihara of Fraser Valley Japanese United leads worship with another participant.

Pyoung Shik Shin of Northwood United joins the 180 other delegates at the Vancouver School of Theology.
