ProVision Fund – BC Conference

Grant Criteria

The “ProVision Fund: BC Conference” is one of a ‘family’ of ProVision Funds that provide monies to be used in projects throughout the Conference. Presbyteries that have their own ProVision Funds are: Comox-Nanaimo, Fraser, Vancouver-Burrard, Victoria, and Westminster. This Conference Fund is available to those in Presbyteries that do not have their own ProVision Fund: Cariboo, Kamloops-Okanagan, Kootenay, Prince Rupert, and Vancouver South. Over the course of each year effort will be made to distribute grants fairly throughout the five presbyteries.

This Fund replaces the Conference’s “Van Dusen Fund” as a source for grants to local projects.

Total monies available from this Fund are expected to be approximately $50,000 annually. Applications to this Fund are expected to be substantial in amount but not so large as to limit the consideration of other worthy proposals. It is assumed that grants will likely fall within the range of $2,000 to $15,000.

Grants will be given for projects with one or more of the following purposes:

- Research and analysis of present local (BC) church life in society;
- The fostering or creation of vibrant new forms of ministry;
- Training and/or support of church leadership;
- The promotion of multicultural and intergenerational ministries;
- The development and establishment of community-based ministries (possibly partnering with other agencies).

Grants for capital expenditures will not normally be considered.

Preference will be given to applications that demonstrate clear goals with a well-developed plan for achieving the goals. Outcomes shall be measurable and a plan for assessment shall also be included. The application will demonstrate the following:

- Achievable innovation with the ability to be vital and effective;
- A strong faith commitment;
- Good management of finances, staff and/or volunteers;
- Cooperation among congregations or other groups;
- Broad support from the church and, if appropriate, the community.

Application for funding can come from groups within the Conference who are located in a Presbytery that does not have an existing ProVision Fund (Cariboo, Kamloops-Okanagan, Kootenay, Prince Rupert, Vancouver South). These groups are:

- Presbyteries, Presbytery Executives, Presbytery Committees;
- United Church congregations;
- ministries recognized by Presbytery as United Church ministries;
- United Church societies;
- Ad hoc groups (ie. United Church-related groups that are formed to carry out a particular project).

Accountability for the use of grants shall be governed by the following:

- A plan for the project its operations and assessment will be required;
- Financial reporting shall be made available at predetermined times and upon request;
- Regular evaluation of the project at predetermined times.

Other

- Applications shall have been approved by the governing body of the submitting group.
- Ad hoc groups (ie. those with no governing body) shall include with their application a letter of support from the governing body of a supporting congregation or Presbytery.
- Multi-year financial grants or commitments are permissible.

Grants Committee

- Grant requests shall be received, evaluated and granted by the Conference ProVision Fund Committee.
